

A historical romantic comedy drama telling the story of Julie Ashton (Lily James), a London based writer, who forms a bond with the residents of Guernsey in the aftermath of World War II. She begins exchanging letters with those that had been living on German-occupied Guernsey during WWII. Feeling compelled to visit the island, she starts to get a picture of what it was like during the occupation. A beautiful story of love, friendship and the sadness of friends lost. Having the courage to reach for what you want is the essence of this must see film.
